WHEREAS, On July 1, 2014, the SFpark pilot project became a permanent program for managing parking pricing at the aforementioned on-street parking meters lot; also on July 2, 2014, this Board authorized the Director of Transportation to set parking rates based on demand-responsive pricing at all SFMTA parking garages; and

WHEREAS, A detailed evaluation showed that SFpark led to a reduction in parking search time, vehicle miles traveled (VMT), greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions, and may have contributed to faster transit and more sales for nearby stores; and

WHEREAS, Expansion of demand-responsive parking pricing to all parking meters and lots under SFMTA jurisdiction in San Francisco will allow rates to adjust to demand, expanding the benefits of the SFpark pilot to the entire City; and

WHEREAS, The proposed Transportation Code amendments would establish a citywide parking meter zone with variable parking meter rates between $0.50 per hour and $8 per hour; establish citywide variable motorcycle parking meter rates set at one-fifth of the applicable parking meter rates; provide a description and maps of the area to be included in the parking meter zone; establish criteria for periodically adjusting parking meter rates; modify Special Event parking meter rates and areas; eliminate Parking Meter Zone Numbers One through Four; and revise the definition of the “Downtown Core” for purposes of parking violations; and

WHEREAS, In compliance with both Charter Section 16.112 and the SFMTA Board’s Rules of Order, advertisements were placed in the City’s official newspaper starting November 12, 2017, to provide notice that the Board of Directors will hold a public hearing on December 5, 2017, to consider the above modifications; and

WHEREAS, On September 27, 2017, under authority delegated by the Planning Department, the SFMTA determined that the expansion of demand-responsive parking pricing citywide is not a “project” under the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) pursuant to Title 14 of the California Code of Regulations Sections 15060(c) and 15378(b); and

WHEREAS, A copy of the CEQA determination is on file with the Secretary to the SFMTA Board of Directors and is incorporated herein by reference; now, therefore, be it
