

South Dakota Basic Code

A low-cost code of ordinances for small and mid-sized municipalities

Published by American Legal Publishing and
the South Dakota
Municipal League

The South Dakota Basic Code is a complete model code of ordinances designed specifically for small and mid-sized municipalities in South Dakota. By utilizing the concept of shared cost to provide an economic alternative for codification, it allows South Dakota municipalities to enjoy the benefits of codification without the substantial expense of a customized code.

Sample Provisions

The South Dakota Basic Code contains provisions on subjects typically encountered by municipalities, including:

- Administration
- Traffic Regulations
- Streets and Sidewalks
- Nuisances
- General Offenses
- Business Regulations
- Peddler and Solicitor Regulations
- Taxation
- Animal Regulations
- Fire Prevention
- And much more

Based on State Law

Most sections are based directly on South Dakota law or on model ordinances drafted by American Legal Publishing and reviewed by the South Dakota Municipal League. In addition, the Basic Code will be updated annually to incorporate state law enactments, deletions, and amendments, keeping your municipality current with changes in South Dakota law.

Features and Pricing

By subscribing to and adopting the South Dakota Basic Code for a cost of $695, your municipality can have all of your important ordinances at your fingertips in one easy-to-use loose-leaf book. The South Dakota Basic Code has a comprehensive index. It also contains a separate code title reserved for incorporating unique local ordinances specific to your municipality or not covered by the Basic Code. The South Dakota Basic Code is updated annually for a cost of approximately $300.
