

ORDINANCE NO. 9112 (NEW SERIES)

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING SECTION 72.126.
OF THE SAN DIEGO COUNTY CODE RELATING TO TRAFFIC
REGULATIONS IN THE COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

The Board of Supervisors of the County of San Diego ordains as follows:

Section 72.126. of the San Diego County Code is amended to read as follows:

Section 72.126. PARKING OR STANDING OF COMMERCIAL VEHICLES

- (a) The parking or standing on streets in residential areas of commercial vehicles having a manufacturer's gross weight rating of 10,000 pounds or more is hereby prohibited.
- (b) This ordinance shall not apply under the following conditions:
 - (1) When such vehicle is loading or unloading property.
 - (2) When such vehicle is parked in connection with and in aid of the performance of a service to or on a property within the residential area.
 - (3) When such vehicle is engaged in the construction, installation, repair or maintenance of a publicly or privately owned utility facility located within the residential area.
 - (4) When the area contains property used for commercial or industrial purposes and such vehicle is parked on the property or on the highway contiguous to the property.
 - (5) When the Board of Supervisors has determined by resolution that the parking of such vehicles on certain residential streets or portions thereof shall be permitted and the Road Commissioner has appropriately signed or marked such streets or portions thereof.
- (c) For purposes of this ordinance a residential area shall be defined as that portion of a highway and the property contiguous thereto upon one or both sides of which highway, collectively within a distance of a quarter mile, the contiguous property fronting thereon is occupied by 8 or more separate dwelling units, including apartments or condominiums. A residential area may be longer than one-quarter mile if the above ratio of dwelling units to length or highway exists.

PASSED, APPROVED AND ADOPTED this 15th day of December, 1999.
